SUBJECT: Department of the Military (DOTM) Policy 42-2019, Anti-Fraud-Code of Ethics

DEPARTMENT OF THE MILITARY Code of Ethics

The DOTM Code of Ethics (Code) is the written document that supports the culture of ethical and efficient service to the citizens of the State provided by this department. The Code describes the behavior expected of employees that perform these services.

DOTM - Code of Ethics

DOTM employees must comply with all applicable laws and regulations. DOTM will not condone employee conduct that either violates, or has the appearance of violating, the law, including the ethical provisions. This includes receiving payments for illegal acts, indirect contributions, rebates, or bribery.

If an employee is uncertain about the application or interpretation of any legal or procedural requirement, the employee should ask for guidance from his or her immediate supervisor.

Conflicts of Interest

DOTM employees must perform their duties in an ethical manner. Employees must not use their position or knowledge gained from their position for private or personal advantage. Arkansas Code Annotated (ACA) 21-8-304 lists certain activities that are ethically prohibited activities for state employees and officials. If an employee becomes involved in a situation that could be considered a prohibited activity, the employee should immediately communicate all the facts to his or her immediate supervisor.

Outside Activities, Employment, and Directorships

DOTM employees should avoid acquiring any business interest, engaging in outside employment or participating in any activity outside the DOTM that would conflict with his or her official duties.

Relationships with Clients and Suppliers

Employees must adhere to ACA 19-11-705 in their relationships with clients and suppliers to avoid any conflict of interest. In addition, any employee who has or obtains any benefit from a state contract with a business in which the employee has a financial interest shall make a disclosure to the Director of DFA in accordance with ACA 19-11-706 and the Rules and Regulations for implementing Governor's Executive Order 98-04.

Gifts, Entertainment, and Favors

Employees must not accept entertainment, gifts, personal favors or preferential treatment that could influence, or appear to influence, their decisions in performing their job functions. Specific procurement law addressing gratuities is codified in ACA 19-11-707 and included in Part 4 of the Procurement Law and Regulations promulgated by the Office of State Procurement. Refer to Rules and Gifts issued by the Arkansas Ethics Commission for detailed rules on gifts at: <http://arkansasethics.com/rules/Rules on Gifts.doc>

Kickbacks and Prohibited Commissions

DOTM employees must not receive kickbacks, prohibited commissions or other prohibited payments from third parties. Violations of this rule will result in imposition of the penalties provided by law. Specific procurement law addressing kickbacks and commissions is codified in ACA 19-11-707 and 19-11-708 and included in Part 4 of the Procurement Law and Regulations promulgated by the Office of State Procurement.

Organization Funds and Other Assets

Employees who have access to DOTM funds in any form must follow the prescribed procedures for recording, handling, and protecting money as detailed in DFA's Financial Management Guide or other explanatory materials, or both. If an employee has knowledge of fraud or waste of public assets, the employee should immediately advise his or her immediate supervisor.

Personal use of DOTM funds or assets is strictly forbidden.

Organization Records and communications

The DOTM books and records must reflect accurate and timely recording of all business transactions. Full disclosure of assets, liabilities, receipts and disbursements must be made. Employees must not make or engage in any false record or communication whether internal or external, including but not limited to:

False expense, attendance, production, financial, or similar reports and statements

False advertising, deceptive marketing practices, or other misleading representations

Hiring Procedures & Disciplinary Procedures

The DOTM does not discriminate in hiring, promoting, and administering disciplinary actions. Ark. Code Ann 21-3-203 and 21-12-103. All DOTM employees are expected to perform their jobs honorably, professionally, competently, and diligently, in compliance with DOTM policies. Employees are also expected to perform their jobs and communicate with the public, clients, and other employees, with respect and professionalism, the uniform conduct standards policy located in the DOTM Handbook is established to provide uniform standards concerning work-related behaviors, which define and convey the expectations of the DOTM to its employees.

Training

The DOTM provides adequate training for all state employees designed to meet the continuing need for employment development and improved job performances and satisfaction. Classes are designed to assist agencies with practical training solutions for efficient and effective public service. The course catalog may be viewed on the Office of Personnel Management (OPM) website, or on the Learning through Empowering Arkansas State Employees (EASE) (<https://ease.arkansas.gov/>). Online registration for employees with AASIS/EASE User IDs and passwords can be accomplished at <https://ease.arkansas.gov/>. You may contact the AASIS/EASE Help Desk at (501) 683-2255 for assistance with AASIS/EASE IDs or passwords.

Non-AASIS/EASE users and Service Bureaus will still be able to complete the Training Program Registration Form (Non-AASIS/EASE Users Only) and submit by email.

OPM Training can be reached by calling (501) 682-1846 or by emailing OPM.Training@dfa.arkansas.gov.

Dealing With Outside People and Organizations

Employees must not use their position or affiliation with the DOTM when communicating regarding matters not involving DOTM business. Employees must not use organization identification, stationery, supplies, and equipment for personal or political matters.

When communicating publicly on matters that involve the DOTM business, employees must not speak for the DOTM on any topic, unless they are certain that the views they express are those of DOTM management, and that it is the DOTM management's desire that such views be expressed publicly.

When dealing with anyone outside the DOTM, including public officials, employees must take care not to compromise the integrity or damage the reputation of the DOTM or any other entity.
